

VELMA CHILDS BELL, B.S., M.A., ED.S.

Educator 🍎 Author 🍎 Advocate

Mrs. Velma Childs Bell is a native of Atlanta, Georgia. She is a retired teacher of the Atlanta Public Schools System. Mrs. Bell received a B.S. degree in Elementary Education with a minor in Special Education in 1976 from Morris Brown College. In 1977, she received a M.A. degree in Learning Disability from Atlanta University, which is now known as Clark Atlanta University. She received her T-6 Specialist degree in Inter-related/Learning Disability from Clark Atlanta University in 1996. She also holds a certificate in Reading Endorsement.

Mrs. Velma Childs Bell's first book is entitled, Roll Up Your Sleeves, Get to Work...Teach the Children. The main focus of this book is to encourage teachers to be their best with new and innovative strategies for teaching students.

A lifelong educator, Mrs. Childs Bell's love for children and her strong belief in the power of knowledge are clearly reflected in her literary works.